Wisdom For The Week:

The hardest part about Get'n Go'n.....
is Get'n Go'n

A new computer user was having a real problem with the new software.
So the customer service department was called.

Here is part of the conversation that followed.

User: I can't get it to start up!

CS: Do you see the message on the screen that says, "Press any key"!

User: Yes! That is the whole problem. I can not find the "ANYKEY" button any where on my keyboard.

Make it a wonderful and happy week!!!!

The happy friends in your life,
