The one dollar bill and twenty dollar bill:

When the one-dollar bill and the twenty-dollar bill met up, the one-dollar bill said "Hey, where have you been? I haven't seen you around here very often."

The twenty dollar bill answered, "Oh, I've been everywhere: hanging out at casinos, going on cruises, back to the U.S. for a while, going to the baseball games, out to the mall, getting some drinks. How about you?"

The one dollar bill replied, "The same old stuff, you know...church, church, church."

Make it a wonderful and happy week!!!!

The happy friends in your life,
