Wisdom For The Week:

I guess because this is the MoNdAy FuNnIeS we can have a wisdom of the week quote that is humorous too. Here certainly is a funny yet frightening quote from the past:

Relevant quotes..... and relevant quote-ees!

"The people who vote decide nothing. The people who count the vote decide everything."
- Josef Stalin.

Why is it that if someone tells you that there are 1 billion stars in the universe, you will believe it, but if someone tells you a wall has wet paint, you will have to touch it to be sure?

Are Lipton Tea employees allowed to take coffee breaks?

What hair color do they put on the drivers licenses of bald men?

Why do they put pictures of criminals up in the Post Office? What are we supposed to do, write to them? Why don't they just put their pictures on the postage stamps so the mailmen could look for them while they delivered the mail?

If it's true that we are here to help others, then what exactly are the others here for?

You never really learn to swear until you learn to drive.

No one ever says "It's only a game," when their team is winning.

Ever wonder what the speed of lightning would be if it didn't zigzag?

Why is the man who invests all of your money called a broker?

Why do croutons come in airtight packages?
It's just stale bread to begin with.

When cheese gets its picture taken, what does it say?

Why are a wise man and a wise guy opposites?

Why do overlook and oversee mean opposite things?

If horrific means to make horrible, does terrific mean to make terrible?

Why isn't 11 pronounced onety one?

Make it a wonderful and happy week!!!!
The happy friends in your life,
