Wisdom For The Week:

(Contributed by Lois Vail..... Thanks Lois)

A family altar can alter a family.
Forbidden fruits create many jams.
He who angers you, controls you!
He who is good at making excuses is seldom good for anything else.
Kindness is difficult to give away because it keeps coming back.
Nothing ruins the truth like stretching it.
Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the ark.
To be almost saved is to be totally lost.
Watch your step carefully! Everyone else does!
We don't change the message, the message changes us.
Wisdom has two parts: 1) Having a lot to say. 2) Not saying it.
Worry is the darkroom in which "negatives" are developed

MoNdAy FuNnIeS

(Here are some from the collection of Margo Mathews..... Thanks Margo)

TRUE STORY: I assume you have all heard about the people last summer, down on Lake Isabella, located in the high desert an hour east of Bakersfield, with a new 22 ft Bayliner boat who were having a problem getting the boat to go very fast. When some one tried to help them they found the problem was that the people still had the boat trailer strapped securely in place.

A blonde ordered a pizza and the clerk asked if he should cut it in six or twelve pieces.
"Six, please. I could never eat twelve pieces."

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH:

Ron Edvalson asked me to pass this on to each of you who use JUNO. If you have questions about it you can contact him directly at: credvalson@aol.com

Cordell

You might mention to any JUNO members you know that they should read carefully the newest service agreement which came to me in late March but was effective March 13, 2001.

Sincerely,
Ron Edvalson
