Wisdom For The Week :

Don't let what you can not do
Interfere with what you can do!

There was an older couple who were getting ready for bed. The wife had this urge for ice cream. Here is how the conversation went:

HER: If you really love me you will go get me a dish of ice cream to eat before we go to bed.

HIM: But you know we don't have any more ice cream in the freezer.

HER: If you really love me you will get me a dish of ice cream.

HIM: I really do love you so I will go to the store right now and get some.

HER: Oh that would be wonderful, you really do love me. I want vanilla ice cream with whip cream, caramel syrup and a cherry on top.

HIM: Ok, I will go to the store right away and get it.

HER: You better make a note so you will not forget what I want.

HIM: No, No I can remember. Vanilla ice cream, whip cream and caramel topping with a cherry on top.

HER: You better make a note so you will not forget what I want.

HIM. No, No. I can remember.

HER: Please make a note.

HIM: No, No, I can remember.

In a very short time he was right back from the store with a brown paper bag. When she opened it, inside she found a ham sandwich. She took out the sandwich looked at it and said: "See you old grump, you did forget. There is no mustard on my sandwich."
