Wisdom For The Week :

Character is like a fence - it cannot be strengthened by whitewash.

Ever wonder why?

How come you press harder on a remote-control when you know the battery is dead?

Why do banks charge you a "non-sufficient funds fee" on money they already know you don't have?

Have you ever imagined a world with no hypothetical situations?

You know how most packages say "Open here"... What is the protocol if the package says, "Open somewhere else"?

Why are they called apartments, when they're all stuck together?

Why do people without a watch look at their wrist when you ask them what time it is?

Why do you ask someone without a watch what time it is?

Why is it that the guy who comes up behind you while you're waiting for an elevator presses the already lit "up" button -- as though he somehow has magical powers that you didn't when you pressed it the first time?

Consumer Tips

When we owned the store in Hyde Park, farmers used to come in and buy Coke to clean the rust off their farm equipment. If you need to remove a rusty bolt, Coke will loosen the corrosion just like liquid wrench. You can use it to clean rust off from almost any metal surface. Pour a little on a scrubbing pad and use it like soap. The rust will soon be gone.
