Wisdom For The Week :

A process is anything that has steps.

Any process that is repeated can be improved.

Improving the processes in our life makes our life better.

These prove the so-called "Experts" really don't know any more than the average person. So even if people tell you not to try something new, try it! You never know what you're capable of until you try. It's better to find out for yourself than to look back and say "what if". - Clint

"Radio has no future. Heavier-than-air flying machines are impossible. X-rays will prove to be a hoax." - English scientist William Thomson, Lord Kelvin, 1899

"Television won't matter in your lifetime or mine." - Radio Times editor Rex Lambert, 1936

"There is no reason anyone would want a computer in their home." - Ken Olson, president, chairman, and founder of Digital Equipment Corp., 1977

"By 2000, the machines will be producing so much that everyone in the U.S. will, in effect, be independently wealthy. - Time Magazine, 1966

"An impractical sort of fad, and has no place in the serious job of postal transportation." - Second Assistant U.S. Postmaster General Paul Henderson on airmail, 1992

"It's a bad joke that won't last. Not with winter coming." - Fashion designer CoCo Chanel on miniskirts, 1966

"Everything that can be invented has been invented." - Charles H. Duell, Commissioner, U.S. Office of Patents, 1899

"Who &$%#* wants to hear actors talk?" - H.M. Warner, Warner Brothers, 1927

"You ought to go back to driving a truck." - Concert manager, firing Elvis Presley in 1954

"We don't like their sound, and guitar music is on the way out." - Decca Recording Co., rejecting the Beatles, 1962

"It doesn't matter what he does, he will never amount to anything." - Albert Einstein's teacher to his father, 1895

If you have a web page and put your email address on it, you will get killed with junk mail because COMPUTER ROBOTS scan every web page and look for any text in the format xxxx@xxxx.com then sell those email addresses to junk email dealers.

SOLUTION: Take a picture of your email address then put the picture of your email address on your web page. That way, the COMPUTER ROBOT cant see it. For example,

Email address as text:

mondayfunnies@yahoo.com

mondayfunnies@yahoo.com

If you highlight the first one, you will see you can copy and paste the first one into some other text message (or email address list), but you can only see the second one. When you click on the second one, you will see it is only a picture. A computer can not see the text in a picture but of course people can.
