WERE YOU UNINTENTIONALLY DROPPED FROM THE MAILING LIST?

If you change your email address please let us know. Just send us THE OLD ONE and THE NEW ONE (so we can delete the old one from the list). If you stop getting the MoNdAy FuNnIeS for any other reason, and you still want them, please email us at mondayfunnies@yahoo.com and let us know!

And we certainly would not want you to start having FuNnIeS WIth HDraL during the week, so past issues can be seen on line at: www.mondayfunnies.com

Wisdom For The Week :

Much of what we are is because of the culture we live in.
It is important that we make certain the culture within our own home is what we intend and not just what our current society is dictating.

Q: Where can women over the age of 50 find young, sexy men, who are interested in them?

A: Try a bookstore under fiction

Q: What can a man do while his wife is going through menopause?

A: Keep busy. If you're handy with tools, you can finish the basement. When you are done you will have a place to live.

Q: How can you increase the heart rate of your 50+ year old husband?

A: Tell him you're pregnant.

Q: How can you avoid spotting a wrinkle every time you walk by a mirror?

A: The next time you're in front of a mirror, take off your glasses

Q: Why should 50+ year old people use valet parking?

A: Valets don't forget where they park your car.

Q: Is it common for 50+ year olds to have problems with short term memory storage?

A: Storing memory is not a problem, retrieving it is a problem.

Q: As people age, do they sleep more soundly?

A: Yes, but usually in the afternoon.

Q: Where do 50+ year olds look for fashionable glasses?

A: Their foreheads.

Q: What is the most common remark made by 50+ year olds when they enter antique shops.

A: "I remember these".

Consumer Tips

This is so strange. I just gave my wife a label maker for her birthday because I have been so worried about traveling all around the country giving seminars and leaving my mouse or camera or something laying somewhere without my name on it so no one would be able to return it to me even if they found it. So tonight we sat her at the kitchen table and put a label on my computer, my wireless mouse, my camera, my computer camera, well you get the picture. Then I decide to get the Funnies done and so I opened the mondayfunnies@yahoo.com to see who had shared wisdom or jokes or consumer tips and here is this email from our friend Arnold S. Conrad Now is that a message for me or what?

(Thanks for sharing Arnold.....)

Subject: Praise report/A good suggestion.

Date: Thu, 14 Jun 2007 03:54:02 +0000

I've got a praise report to share. Today while at Day out with Thomas (the train), I lost my digital camera. I hadn't even realized I was missing it yet when I got a phone call from the bus driver of the shuttle bus that takes you from the parking lot to the museum. He had found it lying on the seat. The reason he was able to call me was that I had one of my address labels stuck to the side of the camera. I didn't have my phone number on it but he was able to look that up and reach me. I am feeling so lucky and blessed that this person was so honest and took the time to contact me. He even brought it to me! I can't thank God enough for watching out for me like that and I certainly want to pray a blessing over that bus driver.

Anyway, besides being so happy about how that turned out, I wanted to pass along the suggestion to put address labels on your camera or other items of value so if they should be lost, a person will be able to contact you. I'm proof that it works. I just put a fresh label on my camera and this time I included my phone number. We will be on vacation in Virginia soon and if I lost it there, the only way to reach me would be by mail.

I hope it works for you like it worked for me.

Marianne
