Wisdom For The Week :

Because we have so many deaf friends, each year as we come to this special time of year, I again marvel at the power music has to create such feelings within us. Oh how I pray for the day when they will hear the choirs of heaven sing and be blessed to share in the feelings and joy that music brings into our lives.

FROZEN PIPE SURPRISE...

Now it is winter, don't forget to unscrew the garden hose from your outside faucet. If it freezes with the hose on it, the frost will go right up the hose, into the pipe and inside your house. Then it will break your water pipe inside your house.

If it is really really cold (if it is like 10 degrees out side or colder for several days in a row) leave a tap running inside your house just a tiny bit over night and wrap a towel around the outside faucets. (They also sell Styrofoam covers at Home Depot that go over the outside faucets if you want to do it the right way). That should keep any pipes from freezing.

If you live in a really cold place, you already know to do these things. It is those of us who live where we don't get many hard freezes in the winter that get caught with the frozen water pipe surprise.
