Wisdom For The Week :

Life is very short. And when it is over the thing we will regret the most is that we did not say I love you more.

Consumer TipS

I just discovered that COMET cleanser works great to get rid of ants. I just sprinkled a little all long the edges of the base boards and other places where their trails were then brished it in with a brush so it did not show. Killed the ones that were there and no more came back..... Have to use what you got when you are out of town .. (I am in Portland cleaning my Mother In Law's apartment ... she just passed away)
