Wisdom For The Week :

We paid $4.19 a gallon for gas today in Seattle. What happened to the economist saying we would see $4 a gallon gas by summer? It never even slowed down at $4. It was $4.03 on Thursday and $4.19 on Friday. With the price of gas driving the price of everything else up, this might be a good time to start thinking about getting totally out of debt!

One of the politicians on the Armed Services committee was being briefed on the war.

The aid told him that 3 Brazilian soldiers had been killed the day before.

The politician got very pale in the face and could hardly speak. Then he said, "How many is a Brazilian"?

Consumer TipS

If you leave your lawn a little bit longer when you mow it, it will not use as much water to keep it green.

Make it a wonderful and happy week!!!!
