A defendant in a lawsuit involving large sums of money was talking to his lawyer. "If I lose this case, I'll be ruined." "It's in the judge's hands now," said the lawyer. "Would it help if I sent the judge a box of cigars?" "Oh no! This judge is a stickler for ethical behavior. A stunt like that would prejudice him against you. He might even hold you in contempt of court. In fact, you shouldn't even smile at the judge." Within the course of time, the judge rendered a decision in favor of the defendant.

As the defendant left the courthouse, he said to his lawyer, "Thanks for the tip about the cigars. It worked! I'm sure we would have lost the case if you'd sent them. But, I did send them."

"What? You did?" said the lawyer.

"Yes. That's how we won the case."

"I don't understand," said the lawyer.

"It's easy. I sent the cigars to the judge, but enclosed the plaintiff's business card."

Hay and by the way.... I dont know How many is a Brazilian is either....

Consumer TipS

Some subscribers have suggested ways to save money as a subject for a few weeks. So here goes:

I have considered putting a natural gas pump in my house and buying a natural gas car. there are lots of federal rebate incentives to do so and in my area the natural gas option would cost me about 23 cents a gallon.
